WELCOME TO LINK DISABILITY MAGAZINE

Do you have a disability? Care for someone who does? Work in the sector? Whether you want to be inspired, catch up on the latest disability-related products and services or learn more about developments and issues in the sector, then Link is the place to do it.

The magazine – published in print and online formats – has been around for more than 30 years, catering to Australia’s disability community and boasting a very loyal readership. Link is an independent, non-profit publication - we do not receive any government funding and rely solely on sponsorship, advertising and subscriptions.

Disability touches everyone’s lives somehow. Four million people in Australia – 18.5 per cent – reported having a disability in 2009, according to the results of the Survey of Disability, Ageing and Carers.

Why not link up with Link’s community?

SPONSORSHIP

Link does not receive government subsidies or grants. Link does attract mainstream advertising and sponsorship from some of Australia’s largest corporations, including Telstra, Commonwealth Bank, Qantas and Australia Post. Sponsoring Link is a great way to strengthen your company or organisation’s presence in the disability community. We would be delighted to develop a sponsorship package to suit your needs – please give us a call to discuss the options available.

“ Leisure Options has been advertising with Link magazine for over 3 three years. Your publications are relevant, educational, fun and most importantly directly target our unique market of travellers. Our campaign has expanded over the years to include online and social media which has benefitted our business and provided national exposure for our brand. ”

Director Leisure Options

About Link

Link Disability Magazine has been Australia's premier cross-disability publication for more than 30 years and it's one that continues to grow due to our expanding online presence. Published six times a year in both print and online formats, Link is easy-to-read, entertaining and insightful. Supported by our popular website and social media platforms, Link is a unique offering that presents a valuable opportunity for advertisers. Quite simply, there is no other disability magazine on the market like Link.

Link – a national Human Rights Award winner – is produced with the key aim of disseminating disability information to its community through journalism, columns by regular contributors, personal stories, and advertising features.

The magazine focuses on living life fully with disability, covering such areas as travel, education, work, love, sex, sport, leisure, and the arts. It also features news stories, disability issues, and information on medical breakthroughs, along with product and service pages.

Link provides an engaging and interactive experience for readers who can dive deeper into stories of interest by following links and sharing information with friends. Plus, advertisers now have the ability to connect beyond the print pages as all adverts have hyperlinks through to the websites.

READERSHIP

Link Disability Magazine has had a loyal readership for more than 30 years and it's one that continues to grow.

Link's audience includes people with disability, families, employees at disability organisations, health professionals, and more – all keen to keep up-to-date with what's going on in the disability world.

In addition to a strong magazine circulation, Link distributes additional copies throughout the year to attendees at major disability events. Thus, the magazine is seen by more end-users who serve as potential customers. Link's Facebook page has more than 8500 fans, too.

Link* is essential reading for anyone interested in what's happening in the disability sector – hence it's the perfect medium for your business in targeting your existing and potential customers.

“Total Ability have been advertising with Link for several years now with the aim to improve awareness to users and therapists within the disability sector about our products.

Link is a good platform to convey that message and get our products in front of the Australian disability market.”

Paul Crake
Director Total Ability

Allows your business to feature in a glossy, full-colour magazine, as well as its three digital formats – text-to-speech, PDF and Flipbook

“ Link disability magazine reaches the target audience Automobility looks to advertise with. The staff are very helpful with organising the bookings, renewals and any help with art work. Communication before each publication regarding if we would like to change our listed art work is very prompt and useful. ”

Fran Elliot
Office Manager Automobility

“ NOVA chooses to advertise with Link because of the magazine's cross disability focus and national profile. As a Link reader myself I find the articles engaging and believe other readers appreciate both the depth and breadth of coverage that Link provides. We receive regular feedback from readers (magazine and e-newsletter) wanting more information on our services that confirm our decision to advertise with Link. ”

Martin Wren
CEO Nova Employment
