

AIMS

- To empower readers through the provision of information.
- To present information that can be understood by the widest range of people.
- To cover a wide range of issues from a disability perspective.

STYLE

Link is looking for articles that:

- are positive.
- are not patronising.
- raise our expectations.
- avoid stereotypes (at one extreme tragic and helpless, at the other heroic or superhuman).
- portray more than one point of view.
- will help readers understand the issue.
- use everyday language and are easy to read.
- have high quality photos available

PAYMENT

Unless payment is negotiated between the editor and writer, Link does not pay for contributions submitted on spec.

EDITING

- Link reserves the right to edit material to fit space and editorial style.
- On occasion, material may be returned for checking and approval prior to publishing, if requested by the author.

TOPICS

Link covers a broad range of topics, including: News (State, National and International), Issues, Lifestyle, Tourism, Entertainment, Business, Breakthroughs, Products, Websites, Education, Employment, Sport, Art and What's On.

FORMAT

Material must be submitted as a Word document by e-mail to the editor (editor@linkonline.com.au).

LENGTH

- Aim to stay within our word count:
 - » up to 300 words for news items.
 - » up to 800 words for feature articles.
- If you have an idea for a feature article, contact the editor to discuss it first.

IMAGES & GRAPHICS

- Send text in .doc or .docx format.
- Send images as a high-resolution .jpg. At least 1MB in size and 300dpi.

COPYRIGHT

Please ensure that all items submitted for publication have been checked and approved by their copyright owners, if applicable. If items have been previously published, indicate when and where, and if possible, provide copies.
